McAuley College enjoys continued success in Boys' Touch Football

With a strong 7-2 defeat of Carmel College, this week makes it a trifecta of wins for the McAuley College Boys Touch team. The previous round saw McAuley College notch up a 21-1 win over St Thomas More and the week prior saw a 12-1 win over Emmaus College.

The wins are the result of a very committed team effort with most of the boys crossing the white line at least once. Sam Blyton has proven to be a real flyer with 10 tries so far. His speed and long reach also combine to make him an impregnable wing defender. Harry O'Reilly dominates in the middle each week by shutting down any opposition attack with his 'shooter' defence. He has also scored some scintillating tries with a current tally of 8. Jake McDonald is proving unstoppable with a personal tally of 9 tries.

Charlie Love and Peter Riddle week-in, week-out, turn in consistently strong performances in both defence and attack. They lead by example with their positive and competitive spirit. Luke Walsh turned in a man-of-the-match display at our last outing, scoring 3 tries. A special mention to Jim McClure, James Gillespie, Hunter Smith, Luke Lynam and Alex McGhee who show improvement each week and each possess a never-say-die attitude.

The SECA competition now breaks for Term Two. The team will continue their training and look forward to the resumption of competition in Term Three.

The boys would like to thank Mrs Richards, our Sport Coordinator, for all her work in organising our teams for the SECA competition.
